

WRITING ASSESSMENT
Write your final composition here.

G 24a

Buzz! Buzz! My alarm went off. "Great", I said. "Now I have to learn." I slugged out of bed not knowing what magical experience I'd have at school.

My mom called me downstairs to tell me to get in the car but I was already there. I figured if I have to go I might as well be on time.

At the front of the school I met up with A and A. "Wait up!", they called with excitement. "We've got great news." "Yeah..... What is it?", I asked A. "A carpet!" A said this as if it were a big deal. "Ummm..... Yay...." I said with exaggeration. "No", said A. "A magic carpet!" "Yeah right", A and I said. "No really, and I can prove it, all you have to do is ditch school." "OK, I guess", My mouth said while my conscience said NO!

When we got to school we agreed we'd depart at 8:45. We left and went to A's "Magic Carpet." "OK so where is the thing?", I asked.

"Right here!", A said as she pulled out the carpet. "Is this a joke?", I asked. "This rug has a stain on it."

A added, "It's real, just sit on it and relax." "Whatever", I said while laying on the rug. "Hey, this is rela....." My sentence stopped because we were flying! "Oh my goodness", A and I said in unison. "We're flying!" "Told ya!",

A said with a smirk of satisfaction.

We flew to London, Texas, Antarctica, Europe, Rome, and New York all in 4 hours. "We've got to get back to school!" A said when we were still in the New York City. When we finally got to school the principal was waiting for us & we all got ISS. I acted sad but I thought it was all worth it!

By: _____

Score Point: 6

This response reflects a high degree of proficiency in narrative writing skills. Organization and development are well controlled. The writer displays and sustains varied syntax and clear language facility through the use of authentic dialogue. Additionally, the response is generally free from errors in mechanics, usage, and sentence structure.